

A Name Twice Made Famous, Now a Shining Mark for Imitators.

The name "Chase," twice made famous, is a shining mark for the unscrupulous to pounce upon and appropriate in order to foist upon the public their worthless preparations. These birds of prey, by using the name Chase, expect the public to be fooled into believing they are the medicines of Dr. A. W. Chase, who first became noted as the author of the world famous Dr. Chase's Kidney Pills, and whose name is now doubly increased by the wonderful success of his Nerve Pills, with Nerve, Brain and Blood troubles. They play upon the name Chase, but dare not use the initials "A. W."

They imitate, but dare not counterfeit the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, which identifies the Nerve Pills now recognized as infallible for building up pale, weak, thin-blooded, nerve exhausted sufferers.

Who are nerve-tired and brain-weary. Who are easily exhausted. Who are wakeful—cannot sleep. Who have nervous headache. They remove the cause of blood impurities, securing refreshing sleep and impart strength.

They build up people who find their strength and vigor waning. They settle irritated nerves, replace languor and lassitude with energy and animation. Cure Nervous Dyspepsia.

CAUTION.—The protection to the public in securing the genuine and original Dr. A. W. Chase preparation is in seeing the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., on each box. These and these only are the genuine. Do not be satisfied with anything bearing the name "Chase" without the initials A. W. 50 cts. of Druggists or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

A "TEN STRIKE"

That Is What the Miners Call President Mitchell's Last Statement.

HE GOES AFTER BAER

President of the United Mine Workers Says Magnate Has Gone Outside the Facts.

Mitchell Is Concerned Lest the Public Get Wrong View of the Situation.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 29.—Some of the local coal operators after being shown a copy of a lengthy statement issued by President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers Sunday, say it will probably be the last he will give to the public before the ending of the strike. They claim his appeal is made up of generalities and that he endeavors to win public sympathy by making a plea for child labor. One operator said the condition of child labor in the coal regions is much better than it is in the manufacturing districts of the country, that the wages paid are better and the working hours shorter.

GEORGE F. BAER.

At strike headquarters Mr. Mitchell's latest deliverance is termed a "ten strike" and that the facts and figures he presents are irrefutable.

President Mitchell introduces his statement as follows: "The recent utterances of Mr. Baer, spokesman of the anthracite coal trust, Mr. Hewitt and other interested persons disclose a well-defined purpose to confuse and cloud the real causes which resulted in the coal strike and an attempt to divert attention from the actual issues involved; however, misleading as are their utterances, it is a relief to know that they now admit that the public has rights and interests which cannot be ignored with impunity; and inasmuch as the public must be the final arbiter of the coal strike, it is imperative that it shall not be deceived by statements which are at variance with the facts. With the purpose of correcting some of the false impressions and misrepresentations contained in the statements of the gentlemen referred to, I issue this letter."

Then follows a voluminous review of the situation from the miners' standpoint.

At strike headquarters it is claimed that there will be no change in the situation this week, which is the 21st of the strike; that the strikers are as firm as ever and that there will be no desertions from the ranks to make it possible for the coal companies to start up any new collieries. The Ninth regiment went into camp at West Side park Sunday afternoon in the midst of a drenching rainstorm. The Sheridan troop ordered out by the governor Sunday joined the Thirteenth regiment at Olyphant, Lackawanna county, this morning.

Quick on the Shoot.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 29.—James Sweeney, a deputy employed at the Bliss mine of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western company at West Nanticoke, on his way home Sunday evening, met some strikers. An altercation ensued, when Sweeney pulled a revolver and fired at Joseph Gillis, a Slav. The bullet entered Gillis' back and he was removed in a precarious condition to his home. Sweeney was locked up. He says the strikers threatened his life and he shot in self-defense.

Bullets for Stones.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 29.—A number of teamsters who were hauling wood Sunday evening from the mountain for the Eighth regiment in camp at Duryea, were stoned by unknown parties. The matter was brought to the attention of Colonel Hoffman and he said he would send an armed guard out with the teamsters today, and for every stone thrown there would be a bullet in return.

Cavalry Called Out.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 29.—Governor Stone has ordered the Sheridan troop of Tyrone to report to General Gobin for duty in the anthracite strike territory. The troop left Tyrone Sunday night by special train under orders to reinforce the Thirteenth regiment at Olyphant.

PENSION FIGURES

Commissioner Ware Gives Out Some Interesting Information.

Washington, Sept. 29.—The annual report of the pension commissioner, Eugene F. Ware, made public Sunday, shows that the number of names on the pension rolls still is under the million mark, despite a net gain of 5,732 pensioners since 1898. The total enrollment July 1 last was 999,446 against 997,735 last year. The total comprises 738,809 soldiers and 260,637 widows and dependents. The aggregate includes 4,695 pensioners outside the United States.

The number of death notices of old soldiers not now in the service received by the bureau during the year was 50,123; but only 27,043 of them were pensioners.

The report says that the death-rate among the pensioners for the coming year will be about 40,000, and the losses to the rolls from other causes will be about six thousand. The total amount paid for pensions during the fiscal year was $137,504,268 and the yearly cost of operating and maintaining the bureau and the agencies outside of the payment of pensions proper aggregates $3,590,529. The pension system, says the report, since the beginning of the government, has cost $2,992,509,019, exclusive of the establishment of the soldiers' homes. The pension disbursements by the United States from July 1, 1799 to June 30, 1865, were $96,445,444.

Amicably Adjusted.

Minneapolis, Sept. 29.—There will be no strike of the employees of the flour mills of Minneapolis, for beginning Oct. 13 the mills of Minneapolis will be operated on an eight-hour schedule instead of under the present system of two twelve-hour shifts. The men do not receive the same pay for eight hours as they did for the longer day, but they have expressed themselves satisfied with the schedule offered by the millers, and the best of feeling prevailed on both sides.

A Desperate Lover.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 29.—Joseph Emers, a well-known young man of Vicksburg, Miss., Sunday afternoon shot and seriously wounded Miss Rosa Borodofski, and turning the weapon upon himself, inflicted what is thought to be a fatal wound. Emers, it is said, had asked Miss Borodofski to marry him. It is presumed that the young lady did not look with favor upon his suit, and that this caused the shooting.

Stain in His Dooryard.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 29.—William Godeau, a cotton handler, living at Cottage Hill, ten miles west of Mobile, was shot and killed early Sunday by some unknown person. Godeau went into his back yard to investigate some disturbance there, taking a shotgun with him. Directly afterward two reports of a gun were heard and neighbors who rushed to the scene found Godeau dead.

Five Were Killed.

McKeesport, Pa., Sept. 29.—Of the eight men injured Saturday evening by the blowing off of a furnace top at the Duquesne plant of the Carnegie blast furnaces, five are now dead. Three additional men died Sunday. The other three men injured are all in a serious condition, and it is doubtful if they will recover.

Ended in Suicide.

Vienna, Sept. 29.—The body of Edmund Jellinek, the defaulting official of the cashier's department of the Vienna Lander (real estate mortgage) bank, has been found in the Danube at Altenworth, near Kremz. He disappeared from Vienna Sept. 18. His embezzlements from the bank amounted to about $1,150,000.

UNDER THE KNIFE

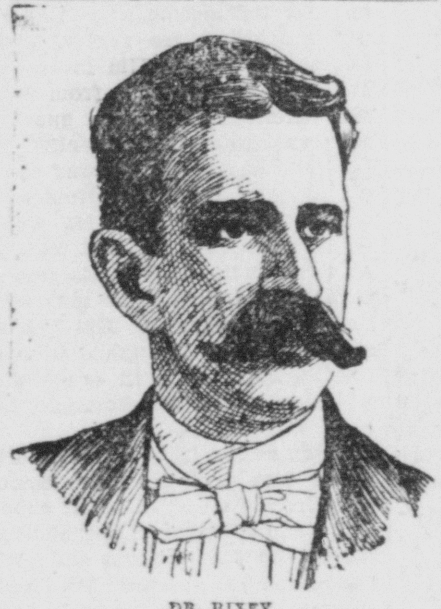

This Time More Than a Needle Was Used on President's Leg.

ANOTHER OPERATION

Condition of President Roosevelt's Wounded Limb Requires Further Surgical Treatment.

The Doctors Cut to the Bone Which They Found Somewhat Affected.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Another operation was performed Sunday on the abscess on the left leg of President Roosevelt. In the former operation a simple needle was used to relieve the trouble, but Sunday the surgeons with a knife made an incision into the small cavity, exposing the bone, which was found to be slightly affected. The president's case has been progressing satisfactorily, but it is believed by the physicians that the further operation made yesterday will hasten his complete recovery. While none of the doctors is willing to be quoted, they give the most positive assurance that there is not the least cause for alarm, and say on the contrary there is every indication of a speedy recovery, that the area of bone affected is very slight, and will not result in any impairment of the president's limb, and that there is no evidence whatever of any matter that would produce blood poisoning. They confidently expect that the president will be on his feet within a reasonable time, and with his robust constitution he will soon be himself again.

The president stood the operation very well and subsequently expressed his satisfaction at the successful result. Dr. Rixey, the surgeon general of the navy, performed the operation, assisted by Dr. Lung, the president's regular physician. The physicians today take a rosier view of the president's prospects for getting out again. He has become somewhat restive because of his close confinement, and the physicians are considering the advisability of permitting him to take a ride in a few days. The physicians say the question now is simply one of the healing of the wound, and reiterate that this will be hastened by the operation made yesterday.

AFTER MOROS

Capt. Pershing Starts on Another Expedition.

Manila, Sept. 29.—A second expedition against the Moro position at Maciu, Island of Mindanao, left camp Vicars Sunday. It is in command of Captain John J. Pershing of the Fifth Infantry and is composed of a battalion of infantry, a troop of cavalry, three sections of artillery and a detachment of engineers. The engineers will construct a pontoon bridge and a corduroy trail across the swamp which flanks the land side of the Maciu forts. This work will occupy several days. Rafts will probably be used to attack the fort from the lake side. The actual date of the assault upon the forts is indefinite. The first expedition, which left Camp Vicars to operate against the Maciu Moros was composed of a battalion of infantry, two troops of cavalry and two guns. It started Sept. 17. The position at Maciu was found to be strong and the attack was delayed in order to improve the methods of approach and to receive reinforcements.

The fort at Maciu is on an elevation close to the lake shore and flanked by swamps, virtually make it an island. The sultan of Maciu regards their position as impregnable and has refused to treat with Captain Pershing. The latter is confident of his ability to capture the forts without serious losses.

Shot On Sight.

Chillicothe, O., Sept. 29.—Walter Shafeen Sunday shot Norman Lutz on the street at Yellow Bay, fifteen miles north of this city. Lutz returned the fire by fatally shooting Shafeen. Lutz was not seriously hurt. Lutz, a wealthy farmer, was charged by Shafeen with intimacy with Mrs. Shafeen.

Preserving Free Transit.

Colon, Colombia, Sept. 29.—The situation on the Isthmus remains unchanged. Free transit between Colon and Panama obtains, and American marines and bluejackets are still traveling on all trains.

Corea's Emperor Not Dead.

Berlin, Sept. 29.—An official telegram to the Korean legation here says the emperor of Corea is alive and in the best of health. The Seoul (Corea) correspondent of the Paris Figaro said in a dispatch published Sept. 25 that the emperor of Corea was reported dead.

FEARFUL VENGEANCE

Mississippi Mob Burns Brutal Negro at the Stake.

Corinth, Miss., Sept. 29.—Writhing in the flames of burning tagots piled high by hundreds of citizens, Tom Clark, alias Will Gibbon, a young negro, was burned at the stake here at a late hour Sunday, after having confessed to one of the most atrocious crimes in the history of north Mississippi, the assault and murder of Mrs. Carey Whitfield, on Aug. 19 last. Before the torch was applied, Clark stated that he deserved his fearful fate. Clark was arrested on Saturday. In his confession he admitted other crimes which had never been suspected against him. The negro's fiery execution was conducted very deliberately, and the husband and brother of the murdered woman applied the torch to the tagots.

SHORT WORK

West Virginia Crowd Quickly Avenge Deputy's Death.

Thurmond, W. Va., Sept. 29.—A deputy sheriff and three colored men are dead at Glenjean, six miles from here, as a result of a crap game Sunday. "Black Diamond" of Mount Hope and Will Washington of Montgomery, both colored, were rivals. Diamond after a short argument, jumped up and shot Washington, killing him instantly. Both men had criminal records.

Deputy Sheriff Watts was near and, mounting his horse, started after Diamond, who tried to escape. When near Diamond he dismounted and followed him on foot. Watts fired, mortally wounding Diamond, who, while lying on the ground, shot the deputy sheriff as he approached, killing him instantly. A crowd of 100 or more had followed Watts. When they saw Watts fall they became frenzied and vowed vengeance. As the crowd neared Diamond, who was lying on the ground, the murderer cried for mercy. The crowd informed him that they proposed to fill him full of lead, and did so.

Used Up Its Capital.

Frankfort-on-the-Main, Sept. 29.—A dispatch from Mannheim announces the arrest of Herr Henninger, a director of the Rheinlan-Mannheim Chemical company, and says that other arrests in connection with the company's failure are imminent. The Rheinlan-Mannheim Chemical industry, a joint stock company, filed a declaration in bankruptcy Saturday. An examination of the books showed that it had worked at a loss for many years and that the deficiency had been concealed by false entries. The capital of the concern, $625,000, was practically lost.

Lost at Sea.

San Francisco, Sept. 29.—The British ship Claverdon, which arrived from Hamburg Sunday, reports having passed through a hurricane with a loss of five of her crew. The storm was encountered Aug. 27. Heavy seas swept over the ship and washed everything movable aboard. All the sails with the exception of the lower mainsail were carried away. Five of the crew were drowned and nine others injured. To lower boats and rescue the drowning sailors was impossible.

The Kossuth Statue.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 29.—A life-size statue to the Hungarian patriot, Louis Kossuth, was unveiled yesterday in this city in the presence of 50,000 people. The statue stands on a pedestal and is about 25 feet high. The figure of Kossuth was the work of a Hungarian sculptor, Andrew Toth, of Debreczin, Hungary. The occasion was made the opportunity for a display of the affection in which the Hungarian patriot is held.

Routed Bulgarians.

Constantinople, Sept. 29.—Official telegrams received here say that 300 Bulgarian revolutionists who were surrounded by Turkish troops at Vodena in the village of Salonica, and who succeeded in forcing the cordon after a sanguinary fight, lost fifty-two men killed and 112 men wounded. The Turks also suffered severe losses. The pursuit of the Bulgarians continues.

Petition the President.

New York, Sept. 29.—Petitions are being circulated throughout the country by the various organizations comprising the American Federation of Catholic societies asking President Roosevelt to use his good offices to end the coal strike. The members of the societies making up the federation number at least half a million persons.

Crime of an Unknown.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 29.—Mrs. Helen Dickson was choked to death and her niece, Miss Helen Robertson, was assaulted early Sunday morning at their home by an unknown man, supposed to be a negro bent on criminal assault, and who was frightened away before his latter design could be accomplished.

ARRESTED THE GHOULS

Secret of Numerous Grave Robberies in the Indianapolis Neighborhood Is Now Out.

Six Negroes Are Under Arrest Who Admit Their Nefarious Occupation.

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—The whole sale robbery of graves which has been going on for some time in this county and which has resulted in the despoiling of several country cemeteries a few miles from the city has received a check that will probably bring the outrage to a close. Detectives have landed in the detention cells at the police station six negroes who have admitted to frequent recent excursions into the country about Indianapolis in search of human bodies. When confronted with evidence in possession of the officers the men admitted they had for weeks been engaged in the hunt for bodies for sale to the colleges.

A VILLAGE TRAGEDY

Murder at Adams Causes Excitement in the Town.

Greensburg, Ind., Sept. 29.—The little town of Adams, five miles west of this city, is in the throes of excitement over a murder that was committed there about 6 o'clock Saturday evening. John Cline, aged about forty-five, had been attending the street fair in this city in the afternoon and left for Adams on the 5 o'clock train, somewhat under the influence of liquor. At the station at Adams he met Frank Ritchey, and the latter claims that Cline knocked him down twice without provocation. Ritchey then drew a hook-bill pocketknife and almost severed Cline's head.

Both men were single and of quarrelsome dispositions, although there seems to have been no previous ill-feeling between them. What the fight started over no one seems to know, as there were no witnesses to the beginning. Ritchey is about twenty-seven years of age. Both men had lived in Adams all their lives. Sheriff Davis went to the scene of the crime and arrested the murderer.

To Honor Lincoln's Mother.

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—The dedication of the Nancy Hanks Lincoln monument at Lincoln City, Spencer county, will take place Wednesday at 1 o'clock. The oration will be delivered by Gen. John C. Black, his subject being, "The Pioneer Wife and Mother." The people of Spencer county will serve a "country dinner" to all visiting guests. No special invitations have been given except to the governors of Kentucky, Illinois and Ohio and Hon. Robert T. Lincoln, all of whom have been compelled to decline. It is expected that quite a number will go from this locality. Reports from Spencer county predict an immense turnout.

Placed Under Bond.

La Porte, Ind., Sept. 29.—The preliminary hearing of W. A. Walters of Chicago, vice president of the Knickerbocker ice company, and Julius Ohls, local manager of the company, who are charged with obstructing the tracks of the Chicago & South Shore Railway company, between this city and Pine Lake, by raising the tracks on the Knickerbocker land to be torn up, was held before Justice Klosein; who held the two officials to the grand jury in the sum of $500 each. Bond was furnished and they were released.

War on Dogs.

Covington, Ind., Sept. 29.—The town council of Willamport has passed an ordinance to the effect that the city marshal shall shoot any dog, muzzled or unmuzzled, that is found running at large. This holds for fifteen days. Then, up to Nov. 15, he is to shoot any unmuzzled dogs running loose. Citizens are ordered to keep their dogs tied or housed for fifteen days and muzzled thereafter. This will enable the police to rid the town of tramp dogs.

Cracksmen at Work.

Lebanon, Ind., Sept. 29.—The general merchandise store of William J. Hine at Gadsden was burglarized by robbers who entered the front door, which they unlocked and with a charge of dynamite blew the door from the iron safe. They secured about $200 in cash, but aside from the money nothing else has been missed. There is no clue to the robbers.

A Minister Assaulted.

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 29.—Alva Rathel, one of the Gaston, saloon men who attacked and beat the Rev. Mr. Martin on the streets of Gaston, has been fined $25 and costs. Mr. Martin was one of the crusaders who waged war on the Gaston saloons.

Collier Sentenced.

Bedford, Ind., Sept. 29.—Mart Collier, who was found guilty of poisoning his family and that of a neighbor, in the Lawrence circuit court has been sentenced by Judge Alexander to the Michigan City prison for three to four years.

GOOD INDICATION

Indiana Educators Predict Rousing Republican Majority.

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—Fassett A. Cotton, Republican candidate for state superintendent of public instruction, believes the state will go Republican by a large majority. "I have a peculiar constituency," said Cotton today. "Most of my campaign so far has been made among people engaged in educational work. They have made no effort to conceal from me what they have heard. Everywhere I have gone I have learned from the educators of trouble among the Democrats. I have been told of many Democrats who intend to vote the Republican ticket. Democrats themselves have told me confidentially that they have no hope of winning. If all the vote should be cast I believe the state would be Republican by a majority of 50,000, but of course there will be a stay-at-home vote."

This week will be one of the most important of the campaign to both parties, as the 30-day poll will be taken. The result of this poll is the best indication the leaders have of the real situation. Both sides are urging their precinct workers to be careful. The poll not only gives an accurate estimate of each party's strength, but it also serves as a final registration of the men who are entitled to vote. The taking of the poll will cost a large amount of money. In Indianapolis, for instance, the poll will cost each side something like $2,500, but it is regarded generally as money well spent. The next legislature may enact a law providing for registration of party affiliation, in which case the poll will not be of such importance, but until there is a registration law the poll will occupy a prominent place with each side. The Brohls never take a poll, but they will appoint men to watch the count of the votes this year.

John L. Griffiths of Indianapolis, one of the leading Republican speakers of Indiana, has had a similar experience to that of President Roosevelt here, only Griffiths came first. A few weeks ago at Lafayette he was thrown against a car railing, severely bruising his knee. An abscess formed and Dr. Oliver, who operated on the president, operated on Griffiths a few days ago, so the latter is now recovering. "I told Dr. Oliver," said Griffiths, good-naturedly, "that he had been practicing on me so as to be ready when the president came." Griffiths has been in bed three weeks, so the president has the same experience he will not be on his feet as quickly as he expects. The accident to Griffiths has taken him out of the speaking campaign.

The proposition that Indianapolis shall try to break into the grand circuit is meeting with the approval not only of local horsemen, but throughout the state as well. There has been a desire for a long time on the part of Indianapolis horsemen to get into the circuit, and now that there is a prospect of Terre Haute dropping out there is a well-developed movement to get a place. It is believed that Indianapolis could be made a profitable racing center. It is more centrally located and because of its railroad facilities it would naturally attract more people than Terre Haute, which is now the only Indiana city in the grand circuit. A meeting will be held some time this week at which plans for getting into the circuit will be submitted.

Chairman Goodrich of the Republican state committee expects to know by tomorrow when Senator Hanna is coming to Indiana and how long he can remain. Goodrich feels sure that Hanna will come for at least one day, but the Republicans have been anxious about the matter, as "Your Uncle Mark" has not been very definite in his replies to the invitations.

Stomachs on Stills.

The man who puts on stiffs does not increase his actual stature by the breadth of a hair. He feels taller while he's on the stiffs, and when he's off them he feels shorter than he ever felt. Stimulants are the stiffs of the stomach. They make a man feel better for the time being, but he feels a great deal worse for them afterward.

The need of the man whose stomach is "weak" is not stimulation, but strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery perfectly answers that need. It cures the diseases of the digestive and nutritive system which make the stomach "weak."

It enables the digestion and assimilation of food, so that the body receives the nutrition on which depends its strength. "I took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for stomach trouble," writes Clarence Carney, Esq., Taylorstown, Loudoun Co., Va. "It did me so much good that I didn't take any more. I can eat most anything now. I am so well pleased with it I hardly know how to thank you for your kind information. I tried a whole lot of things before I wrote to you. A gentleman told me of your medicine, and how it cured his wife. Thought I would try a bottle of it. Am now glad that I did, for I do not know what I should have done had it not been for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." The sluggish liver is made active by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

The republicans of Jackson township will meet in mass convention in Seymour at the city building on Saturday, October 4, 1902, at 1:30 p. m. for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following township offices:

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

J. T. Arbuckle, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Rushville, has broken into the politics of the Sixth district. He was nominated for congress last Saturday by the democrats of that district and will make the race against Jas. E. Watson. Watson has a majority of about 3,000 votes so Tom's chances to be a congressman are not very bright this year.

Simon Hudson was renominated for prosecuting attorney at Orleans last Saturday, but not until after a strong effort of the party to get him out of the way. They are aware of his inefficiency and the demand of the people for a capable man. They can have a capable and efficient prosecutor by electing John M. Lewis, the republican nominee.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. TOUBLE.

Rev. J. T. Charlton Makes Statement to the Congregation Sunday.

At the meeting of the New Albany Presbytery at Scottsburg last week Rev. J. T. Charlton, pastor of the Seymour Presbyterian church, asked that the pastoral relation between himself and the Seymour church be dissolved, the same to take effect January 1, which request was granted. Previous to this action it was known to the members of the church and many others that the board of elders of the local church, representing as they believed the sentiment of the congregation, officially requested his resignation. This request Pastor Charlton at first resented, but after further deliberation concluded that it would be best under the circumstances for him to resign and therefore he went before the Presbytery and asked that his relation as pastor of the Seymour church be dissolved as stated above.

This done it was the general supposition that whatever differences, real or imaginary, that had existed would now adjust themselves and that peace and harmony would prevail. But the surprise, which bordered on the sensational, came at the conclusion of Rev. Charlton's sermon Sunday morning. Since then this church trouble has been the talk of the town.

In his statement to the congregation yesterday Rev. Charlton said in substance, that he had made the request of the New Albany Presbytery because he had come to the conclusion that it would be best under the circumstances for the church and best for him that he take this action. He also stated that he had been convinced that the water works controversy had entered into his case and caused certain one to be prejudiced against him. He made personal references to Messrs. W. F. Pe'er and M. S. Bligh, alleging that they were prejudiced against him because of his alleged stand in the water works controversy.

When he concluded his statement Messrs. Peter, Bligh and Heller each spoke briefly, stating that what the board of elders had done was done at the request of a large portion of the membership of the church, that such an action had been repeatedly requested by many members of the church for the past two years and that they, as officers of the church, were only following out these repeated requests. So far as the water works controversy was concerned they said that never at any meeting of the Session had that subject been mentioned. After these statements and the singing of a hymn the congregation was dismissed.

The entire community regrets that such unfortunate troubles have gotten into this excellent congregation, because no good can result to any concerned. It is unfortunate to the church, the pastor and people. Let us hope that the whole matter will be adjusted as becometh thoughtful, fair-minded, conscientious, christian people.

Sicily Still Suffering.

Syracuse, Sicily, Sept. 27.—A fresh storm burst over the district of Santa Maria Sunday and many houses were destroyed. The stormy weather continues generally throughout Sicily. It is now believed that 200 persons perished at Modica during the tornado. In one instance a family of ten persons was drowned in bed. The village of Sortino has been practically destroyed and forty-three persons were drowned. The water rose in the church to a height of twelve feet. Many children lost their lives.

Missouri Dynamiters.

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 29.—An attempt was made Sunday night to destroy the family of Columbus Walton of South St. Joseph by the use of several sticks of dynamite. The family lived over a store run by Walton and the dynamite was placed under the step of the front of the building. The detonations were terrific and were heard twelve miles away. The main part of the structure was destroyed, but the family escaped injury. The loss is $5,000. The police have no clue.

A Retaliatory Measure.

Brussels, Sept. 29.—An agreement will probably be reached between the heads of high finance in Europe to prevent the issue of any Roumanian loans until the oppressive anti-Jewish legislation of that country has been modified. Such action would embarrass seriously the Roumanian government in the redemption of a large amount of treasury bonds payable in 1904.

Congressional Nomination.

New Castle, Ind., Sept. 29.—James T. Arbuckle of Rushville was nominated for congress by the Democrats of the Sixth district Saturday.

Fortune Favors a Texan.

"Having distressing pains in head, back and stomach, and being without appetite, I began to use Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes W. P. Whitehead, of Kennedale, Tex., "and soon felt like a new man." Infalible in stomach and liver troubles. Only 25c at Peter's Drug Co.

Indiana Representative Pays Eloquent Tribute to the American Soldier.

REPUBLIC'S BENEFICENT MISSION

At Home the Prosperity and Happiness of the People, Abroad the Bestowal of the Blessings of Law, Order and Civilization.

Representative Charles B. Landis of Indiana on June 24th made eloquent reply to those Democratic leaders who have persistently sought to discredit not only the American soldier, but the sincerity of the government in its efforts for the betterment of conditions in the island possessions which came to us as the fortune of war. This speech was one of the notable events of the last session of congress, and aroused great enthusiasm on the floor of the house. A few extracts from this speech follow:

The gentleman from Illinois (Mr. Kern), in an address delivered on the floor of this house a few days ago, used these words:

"I have not met a soldier who has returned from the Philippine Islands who was not looking for a government job or some other sort of government favor, who had one word of commendation or approval for our policy in the Philippine Islands."

Mr. Chairman, I have met such a soldier. I met him, and I attended his funeral in the little city in which I live the latter part of last October. It seemed to those who had known him and had seen him grow from childhood that he was but a boy, and such in truth and fact he was. But he was a "regular." He served with the Fourth cavalry. His father was a Michigan soldier, and from him the son inherited the divine spark. He ran away from school to enlist, left his books to go to war. It was the same old story in which is written so much of our nation's glory. He was with Schwan, with Lawton and with Young all through the Luzon. He came back with his regiment to be mustered out the following spring. His health was so poor he was furloughed from Jefferson Barracks, Mo., in order that he might return to his home in Delphi, Ind.

I was at the train when he arrived. I saw him drag his poor, emaciated body from the car, and half supported by his old friends and neighbors, stagger across the platform and fall into the arms of his mother. He lived just one month and then he died. It was a beautiful day when we laid him away in the cemetery overlooking the valley. Thousands of people attended his funeral. Hundreds of them stood under the trees, beautiful in their autumn foliage, while the sad and solemn service progressed. His former schoolmates were his pallbearers, and his casket was draped in a beautiful American flag. In the evening, just as the sun left us to give light to those people for whom he gave his life, we buried his poor remains from the sight of men forever.

What One Soldier Said.

Mr. Chairman, Oliver Cockrane did not come home expecting to receive a government job. Oliver Cockrane did not come home expecting to receive any sort of governmental favor. Oliver Cockrane did not expect the policy of his country in the Philippine Islands. I talked with him a score of times during that month and he told me he did not expect it. He said if there was one objection he would make to that policy it was that his country was too humane, too gentle and it was that it did not visit to a greater degree upon those people the heavy hand of its authority.

A few days before this soldier died, as I was sitting in his room, he turned his face toward me, and with his great eyes illumined with patriotic fire, he said: "We soldiers who have served in the Philippine Islands do not want to have it said in years to come that we followed a retreating flag."

"We soldiers who served in the Philippine Islands do not want to have it said in years to come that we followed a retreating flag." There is more eloquence, there is more patriotism, there is more philosophy in that single sentence than in all the utterances of the anti-imperialists since the first shot was fired in Manila Bay, May 1, 1898.

Not a Flag of Retreat.

And they will not have it said in years to come that they followed a retreating flag. We have heard it said on this floor that the American flag has retreated; that it retreated from Tripoli. I deny it. It performed its mission in Tripoli and then passed on. And murder and rapine and piracy along the Mediterranean became a reminiscence. We have heard it said that it retreated from Mexico. I deny it. It performed its mission in Mexico and passed on. That triumphant march from the Rio Grande to the City of Mexico was the timely chastisement that dignity and decency gave to arrogance and impudence, and it has been ever since an inspiration to that people.

We have been told that our flag retreated from Cuba. I deny that. It performed its mission in Cuba and passed on, and the image of that flag is today worn in the heart of every grateful Cuban, its meaning is written in every line of their constitution, and that flag is over Cuba today, an inspiration and a protection. This same flag has a mission to perform in the Philippine Islands. It will perform that mission and may pass on, but it will never retreat.

Criticism of the Soldier.

Our friends on the other side have criticised and have been particularly severe on the American soldier. They say they have not had anything against the American soldier, but they are against the policy adopted by this administration in the Philippine Islands. The soldiers, however, represent their sons, and their neighbors' sons, people from their own states, people from the districts which many of them represent, and it would seem that common sympathy would dictate that they give some sort of kindly consideration to them.

They have nothing against the soldiers, they say, and yet, when there was brought into this house the other day a bill providing an appropriation of $500,000 for the proper shelter of the officers and enlisted men of the army of the United States, lawfully on duty in the Philippine Islands, to be expended at the discretion of the president, every Democrat except seven voted against it, and every Republican on the floor of this house voted in favor of it. "Not another soldier nor another dollar for this unholy war."

That is the same cry we heard in this republic one-third of a century ago when the life of the nation was at stake. They said it to Abraham Lincoln when he was struggling in anguish and in prayer to preserve the life of the nation. "Not another dollar nor another soldier for this unholy war," and they said the war was a failure. But the soldiers marched on, and the republic was saved and the flag floats over all the states just as it did in 1860.

This slander and this abuse of the army is having its effect. It caused the death the other day of one of the brave fellows who survived the massacre of Balangiga. He was killed, or fatally wounded, in the state of Tennessee. Some one in his presence charged that "two-thirds of the American soldiers who went to the Philippines were hoodlums and the other third were cowards and bullies," and, brave man that he was, he resented it. He survived Balangiga to be killed in Tennessee while defending the honor of his comrades. Who sowed that seed in Tennessee? Read the Congressional Record and you will get an answer to that question.

The Republic's High Destiny.

There is just enough of the old-fashioned doctrine of predestination in me to lead me to have faith in the ultimate glorious destiny of this republic and the final world-wide triumph and domination of the Anglo-Saxon race. As has been said by a gifted writer, this Anglo-Saxon civilization has been on the march for nearly 2,000 years. At times that march has been slow and sometimes it has seemed as though the last camp had been reached. The fires of the bivouac once or twice went out, apparently never again to be lighted, but suddenly the flame again flashed forth and the march went on.

Mr. Kerrigan passed by this Anglo-Saxon tread has ever been lost to enlightenment, to liberty and to law. Britain recognized the banner, and twelve centuries later the Anglo-Saxon colors went up at Jamestown. It required a century and a quarter for them to cross to the valley beyond these mountains. About that time the older branch of this race planted the flag in Canada and in India, while the younger branch went to the Mississippi.

The Spaniard threw the great Louisiana territory into the lap of France as a bulwark against the advance, but the clear vision of Napoleon Bonaparte saw a destined republic, extending from ocean to ocean, and with the single stroke of a pen he annulled the alliance which the heirs of Isabella had attempted to make against fate. Three generations after the ink dried on that parchment happy children were playing in American homes along the Platte, the Columbia and the Sacramento.

The American Spirit.

It was not Thomas Jefferson that gained the territory west of the Mississippi for this republic; neither was it due to the political complications among European nations. This determined the time and offered the opportunity for the acquisition. It was the sublime might and destiny of the American people, the heirs of the traditions and fortunes of a world-mastering race, which won Louisiana for the United States; and it is this same spirit of liberty and this same passion for law, still springing from the breasts of heroes, that will nourish the liberties planted at Manila and make effective the mission upon which we start the law for civil government which we are now framing, and upon it all we can, without Pharisaical pretense or hypocrisy, ask the favor and blessing of Almighty God.

I believe this republic has a mission both at home and abroad; its mission at home, the happiness and prosperity of its own people—its mission abroad, the bestowal of the blessings of law and order and civilization upon other people, even upon those who live in the uttermost parts of the earth.

Perhaps the most interesting character in the story of the American Revolution is Alexander Hamilton. A study of the man, his characteristics and guiding motives, was prepared by John Fiske before his death, and appears as the leading article in the October Cosmopolitan. This is a very valuable paper and brings out much important history of the formative period of the United States.

Aim to interest buyers by some other than the threadbare claim of "best and cheapest." One advertiser recently did it this way: "Just at a time when housewives are ready for a new rope portieres comes the chance to buy them for $1.98." Then a brief description. No boastful claims. But a subtle inference of worth, merit and value that seems to be a great improvement over the more commonplace method of big adjectives and hyperbole.

The Ideal Entertainers' Herald shows three excellent pictures of Earl Cox, of this city, who is with this entertainment company as instrumentalist and cartoonist. Of his rapid advancement and his proficiency the Herald says: "It is seldom that we find an entertainer who is proficient in more than one line, but all agree that Mr. Cox's work as leader on the Marimbaphone and Organ Chimes is of the very highest order, while his skill and rapidity as a cartoonist is seldom equaled. In an incredibly short time he almost throws upon the paper the portraits of prominent men and many of the odd character he has met in his travels."

REPUBLICAN SPEAKING.

Hon. Chas. W. Miller, of Goshen, candidate for attorney general, will speak in Seymour, October 4th, at 7:30 p. m.

A Moses Program.

At the close of the review lesson at the Baptist Sunday school yesterday some special exercises concerning Moses' life and work were given as follows:

Recitation—"A Prayer of Moses," 90th Psalm in Metre, Daisy Barkman

"The Burial of Moses".....

.....Blanche Huffman

Quartet—"Moses".....

Messrs. Stratton, Sawyer, Bryan, Martin.

Summary of Moses Life.....

.....S. H. Huffman

The words for the quartette were written by the pastor, Rev. W. C. Martin as follows:

Sent of God to lead His people From the land of slavery.

Moses wrought as God commanded Led them through the parted sea.

Sent of God to teach His people Holy wisdom, truth and right.

Moses brought from thund'ring Sinai Holy law and heavenly light.

Sent of God to make a nation From a feeble, fearing band

Moses built to last forever Israel known in every land.

Sent to fill the world with knowledge Of the Lord, he did his best.

Spoke the word in deathless measure Then the Father gave him rest.
